BASKETBALL SKILL INSTRUCTION*

Camp Director Head Coach John Thompson

A native of Durham, NC, John Thompson became the head men's basketball coach at North Carolina Wesleyan College in 1995 where he has led the Battling Bishops to tremendous success over the past sixteen years.

His teams have won numerous accolades, including the 2010-2011 USA South Conference Regular Season Championship as well as the conference tournament title.

Thompson is first on Wesleyan's all-time wins list, and was recently named the USA South Coach of the Year for the second consecutive season. During his tenure, he has developed some of the Battling Bishops' all-time greats!

Assistant Camp Director Assistant Coach David Doino

A native of the Bronx, NY, David Doino has been with the NC Wesleyan men's basketball program for four years. Doino is a 2005 graduate of Virginia Wesleyan College with a degree in communications. He joined the Battling Bishops after serving three years as assistant coach at his alma mater, helping lead the Marlins to the 2006

NCAA D-III National Championship. Prior to assuming his coaching duties, Doino was a standout basketball player for VWC. He enjoyed a stellar career that saw him become a three-time All-Old Dominion Athletic Conference honoree. As a four-year starter, Doino led VWC to a 70-36 record for his career.
